

DAVID M. SCHWARZ ARCHITECTS

INTERNSHIP & TRAVELING FELLOWSHIP

Sundance Square

The Smith Center for the Performing Arts

CALL FOR ENTRIES

An annual award for internship and travel, open to graduate students who are one year from graduation (Second Year M.Arch I or First Year M.Arch II) at the Yale School of Architecture.

The fellowship consists of a ten week paid internship in the office of DMSAS in Washington, DC and a $10,000 stipend for travel and independent research during the summer of 2018.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Dean's Office by 9:00am on Tuesday, January 16, 2018

RECIPIENT ANNOUNCED

Thursday, February 1, 2018

David M. Schwarz Architects, Inc. is a Washington, DC-based design firm, established in 1978, with an expansive portfolio of cultural, institutional, commercial, athletic, residential, and master planning projects located throughout the country.

WWW.DMSAS.COM